“Now I would like to ask you a few questions about yourself. In studies like this we often compare the ideas of men and women, young and old persons, and people of different economic backgrounds. The following questions are designed to assess some of your current and early life experiences. We realize that many of these refer to events that happened a long time ago. Please try to remember and answer as best you can. We will start our questions by gathering information about your current occupation, education and so forth. These questions are very important to this study. Can you agree to give us this information?”

Where were you born?

1a. City or Town: …

1b. County: ..

1c. State (or Country if not US)…………………………………………………………………………………………..

2a. Think of this ladder with ten steps as representing where people stand in their communities. People define community in different ways. Please define it in whatever way is meaningful to you. At step 10 are people who have the highest standing in their community. At step 1 are people who have the lowest standing in their community. Tell me a number that represents where you think you stand at this time in your life, relative to other people in your community.
